

Accomac Court-House, Va.
SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1892.
John W. Edmonds, Editor and Owner.
LOCAL NEWS.
Hon. W. A. Jones will speak at Chincoteague, Saturday night, September 24th.
Accomac C. H., Monday, court day, September 26th.
Onancock, September 26th, at night.
The next term of circuit court commences Tuesday, October 4th.
East Hanover Presbytery meets at Accomac C. H., Tuesday, October 4, 8 p. m.
Mr. Henry Lang had a rib broken by a fall from a bridge in our town on his way home, last Tuesday night.
A festival will be held at Conquest M. P. Church, Thursday, 26th inst.
If that day should be inclement, then next fair day.
Our merchants and farmers visiting Baltimore, this spring and summer will find the Maltby house, a desirable stopping place.
Special attention is invited to advertisements of F. H. Dryden, J. B.
Hopkins and Seville & Young, Pocomoke City, in this issue.
Mr. Alfred J. Lilliston was severely bitten by a dog on the leg this week and has been confined to his home for most of the time since.
Mr. James Bishop and Miss Annie Coard, both of this county, near Lee-mont, were married in Pocomoke City, Wednesday morning.
Very valuable personal property offered for sale in this issue by F. H.
Carmin, trustee. It will be sold at public auction, Wednesday, September 28th. See advertisement for full particulars.
Come to Accomac C. H., Monday, September 26. Hon. W. A. Jones, whom we should all delight to honor for the splendid record made by him in the last Congress, will address you on that occasion.
The county treasurer and his deputy are ready to receive the taxes of 1892, and will have their books open for that purpose at Accomac C. H., next Monday. See advertisement for further particulars.
The steamer Tangier, while on her way to Onancock, on Wednesday, was disabled by breaking a part of her machinery at Hunting Creek and was taken from latter place to Crisfield for repairs.
County court next Monday. Don't fail to be on hand to hear the speech of Hon. W. A. Jones, and don't forget either to put enough cash in your pockets to meet your indebtedness at the ENTERPRISE office.
Hon. John W. G. Blackstone will chance the Knights and Col. Mike Glennan, of the Norfolk Virginian, will deliver the coronation address at tournament to come off at Cape Charles Fair Grounds, October 7th.
Ben Young, colored, charged with burning three foder stacks near Pastoria, of James Seymour, colored, last Saturday night, was sent to jail, this week, by a justice of the peace to await the action of the grand jury.
A shipment of twenty barrels of sweet potatoes was made by Mr. L.
James Gunter for the farmers of this vicinity, last week, to Liverpool, England, and the returns, if satisfactory, will open up another market for our staple product.
Misses Bertie Parsons, Lena Trow-er, Mamie Hyslop and Ada Mapp are students from Accomac at the State Normal School at Farmville, this session. Miss Madeline L. Mapp has resumed her duties as teacher of music and elocution in said school.
There will be a sale of the personal property of the late T. H. Bayly Brown, on Saturday, October 1st, 1892, commencing at 10 o'clock a. m.
The property consists in part of household and kitchen furniture, horse and buggy, 1 cart, 8 cows &c.
Mrs. Brown also offers her house and lot for sale, or rent.
An elegant dinner will be served by the ladies of the Drummondtown Baptist Church in the new hotel next Monday, court day, and if you do not want a regular dinner, an oyster stew, or ice cream and cake will be "furnished" you in another room of the building. Doors open from 10 a. m. until sunset.
A successful revival meeting is now in progress at Drummondtown M. E.
Church, South, conducted by the pastor, Rev. V. Bargamin. To date there have been sixteen converts—and the interest continues without abatement. Rev. John W.
Nicholson assisted in the meeting early in the week and preached several able and effective sermons.
The question, now upon every tongue, is, will Capt. O. A. Browne meet Hon. W. A. Jones in joint debate at Accomac C. H., next Monday, and it is generally believed that he will. The Captain got pretty "badly walloped" at a late meeting at Matthews C. H., but it will hardly do for him to show the white feather so early in the season and at his old home.
Prof. Gilbert Walden, the famous Southern elocutionist, will give humorous and dramatic recitals in the Town Hall at Onancock, Tuesday, October 4th, 8 p. m., for the benefit of the M. E. Church, South, of that place. In connection therewith an elegant supper will be served by the ladies of the church. It will be an entertainment of rare merit and should be liberally patronized.

NEIGHBORHOOD NOTES.
Chincoteague.
Henry Lee Hudson is quite sick at this writing.
Dr. Jones, of Snow Hill, Md., was here on a visit to his son, O. M. Jones, this week.
Chincoteague will do her duty as usual in November by giving a large Democratic majority—no Third partyism here.
Mrs. E. P. Timmons and children, who have been here during the summer, left for their home in Philadelphia this week.
The outlook for a good oyster season never was more flattering—and our people are feeling happy over their prospects.
John W. Field declines the principalship of our public schools, the next session, to accept, it is reported, a position in New York city.
W. J. Matthews has sold his handsome Morrill colt to horsemen in Wilmington at fancy figures—the handsomest ever owned on Chincoteague.
Rev. W. Jaggar and wife, of Philadelphia, Dr. Geo. Clayville, of Wilmington, Del., and Miss Jennie Mumford, of Fredonia, Del., were among the visitors to friends and relatives here during past week.
I. T. Matthews, cashier of Snow Hill National Bank, spent several days with us last week looking after the interests of the bank, and added the names of several of our citizens to the list of depositors. He has the confidence of our people and they all speak in flattering terms of their business relations with him.
Arrivals at Atlantic Hotel this week:
D. G. Baird, A. J. Pougherty, Philadelphia; Edward Lloyd, F. A. Mitchell, George Whitman, George Pol-tis, J. S. Pierce, Wilmington, Del.; P.
L. Cannon, Bridgeport, Del.; D. J.
Focks, H. K. Focks, C. E. Focks, Willert Sayton, Laurel, Del.; R. J.
Holliday, Thos. Fisher, J. A. Alsiss, J. H. Foyes, Clayton, Del.; J. H. Mc-Glother, Georgetown, Del.; F. H.
Mackey, Washington, D. C.; G. H.
Lynn, New York; R. J. McAllen, Snow Hill; M. E. Selby, O. F. Byrd, Accomac.
Parsonage.
The Misses Coe have returned to Newark, N. J.
Miss Fula Johnson is visiting friends in Baltimore.
Miss Addie Whitehurst, of Norfolk, has been visiting Mrs. E. T. Pate.
Miss Florence Hudson, of Belle Haven, is visiting Mrs. D. F. White.
Miss May Johnson and Miss Kate Burns have gone to Richmond to school.
Miss I. L. Lewis and Dorsey Lewis have returned to Westminster, Md., College.
Mr. Sturgis and Miss Willie Wright will teach the Parkley public school next term.
Misses Leila Rogers, Maude Mills and Minnie Mills, of Onancock, are visiting Mrs. H. T. Mason.
The N. Y. P. & N. P. R. Co., has built a neat new tool house, and improved the waiting room at the station.
The corner-stone laying of the Parkley M. P. Church was a very enjoyable occasion and attracted quite a large crowd. Rev. H. L. Elder, of Pocomoke City, Md., delivered a very eloquent and appropriate address, and was master of ceremonies. Mappsville cornet band delighted all by their playing. A bounteous supper was served by the ladies, and all the delicacies of the season daintily served by the. The ice cream and confectionery stand was liberally patronized. Miss Emma Lewis won the handsome afghan knitted by Mrs. A. D. F. Ewell, and offered to the young lady who made the largest collection for the church.
Miss Lewis collected $58.62, Miss Ethel Lewis $56, Miss Mamie Parks $51.09, Miss M. Jones $15, Miss A. Russell $10.15.
The collections for the church were liberal and will be announced later.
The church is a handsome one and will be furnished with the best polished hard wood pews and fittings, and is a credit to the builders. The location is desirable, facing on the park.
C. S. Slocumb & Bros., Onancock, sell the Vickers ham warranted.

Onancock.
J. R. Sturgis is sick—mild form of typhoid.
Potato shipments have been light
this week.
W. T. Wise, our popular druggist, left Wednesday for Baltimore.
Prof. Kranz and wife, of Danville Female College, are expected to spend the fall in Onancock.
Eastern Shore Academy, under Prof. Brent and Wyant, have already enrolled 88 scholars.
The factories at Onancock, viz: Walter, Merrill & Doughty, and Thos.
West, have been running heavy this season.
Onancock Public High School will open Monday, October 3rd. This school is under the management of Prof. G. G. Joyner and is well known on this Peninsula.
The sail packets of Powell & Wapples, Boggs & Grotton, Crockett & Winder are making trips twice per week from here to Baltimore, Saturdays and Tuesdays.
W. T. Bandick will in a few days erect an elegant dining room at the rear of his fresh best store and growing for the purpose of supplying his customers at all hours with fine fat oysters, stewed, fried, on the half shell, or to families.
The Democrats of Onancock met in the Town Hall, on 16th inst., and organized a Clevland, Stevenson and Jones Club. Forty-five names were enrolled at once and $2.50 collected towards purchasing a handsome Democratic banner for Onancock. Hon. T. M. Scott was chosen president, Capt. Sam Lambden, vice-president, John S. Waples, treasurer.
W. J. Doughty, secretary. Speakers will be engaged for every Friday night.
